April 11-14, 2024
Theme: The Yearling

Thursday April 11

6:00 PM Sandwiches and Hors d'oeuvres event. Sandwiches will be provided. Please bring something to share and your own chairs. We will be outside at the host's site. After dinner, games in the pavilion by the pool, or under the shelter at the host's site. Bring a game or your nickels for playing nickels.

Friday April 12

Gather at the clubhouse at 9:30 AM to leave around 10:00 AM for our visit to Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings Historic State Park in Cross Creek, about a 40-minute drive from the park. A private tour for our group is planned for 11:00 am. Entry is free for Florida State Park pass holders (know your pass #). Otherwise, the fee is $3.00 per car (bring cash for envelope-no attendant on site).

After the tour, head to The Yearling Restaurant, about a mile away, for lunch together in a private room.

After lunch, we have arranged for a wine tasting for those interested at The Tasting House in Island Grove, on the way back to the park.

Dinner is on your own. Gather at the pavilion for games after dinner.

Saturday April 13 – National Scrabble Day – National Peach Cobbler Day – National Licorice Day

Explore on your own –

- The Camp Blanding Military Museum(free) is 20 miles north of town near Stark.
- Mike Roess Gold Head Branch State Park is 8.5 miles away.
- The Clay County Agriculture Fair is in Green Cove Springs, 29 miles away.
- In the town of Melrose, just south of Keystone Heights, is reportedly the best fried chicken in the area at Fryers.
- Another option for lunch is Blue Water Bay.
- Florida Museum of Natural History is in Gainesville along with a number of other places of interest – sign up for carpooling can be offered.

If you want to the RV resort has many weekend activities and games that we are welcome to join. The calendar for the park activities is not yet available, but we will get it to you as soon as it is. Free Putt-Putt golf course is next to the Resort. If there is enough interest, we will plan a putt-putt tournament.

5:30 pm Meet to go out to dinner at Cedar River Seafood in Keystone Heights for dinner. Games after dinner if desired. Bring the game of your choice or bring your nickels. It's National Scrabble Day and we can have a tournament? We have two scrabble games.

Sunday April 14

8:30 Meet at the host's site for continental breakfast. Bring your own coffee and a chair.
